About this Handbook

This handbook has been designed to acquaint staff employees holding either a standing or fixed-term I appointment with the various policies, services, and facilities of the University which will directly affect them during their careers with the University. This booklet should answer the questions most frequently asked by employees. It is prepared as a ready reference. However, it is not intended to be definitive on policy matters, nor does it grant substantive contractual rights to University employees. More precise definitions, special cases, and additional details must be obtained from the offices or publications where materials for this handbook were gathered. This electronic version of the Employee Handbook is updated on a regular basis. The official source documents for policies in effect at the University are in GURU (General University Reference Utility). Additional information can be accessed at the following home page addresses:

Office of Human Resources - (human resources matters)

Penn State - (services and facilities)

Faculty and Staff Services Quick Reference - (quick reference link)

NOTE: Throughout the handbook and in GURU, Human Resources policies are referenced with the prefix HR and Human Resources guidelines are referenced with the prefix HRG.

Nothing contained herein shall negate the right of the University to augment or change its policies applicable to employees.

About the University

The Pennsylvania State University, chartered in 1855 as the Farmers' High School, a pioneer institution to provide higher education for all social classes, admitted its first students in 1859 and graduated its first class in 1861. Renamed the Agricultural College of Pennsylvania in 1862, it became a land-grant college in 1863. The name was changed again in 1874 to the Pennsylvania State College, and in 1953 to The Pennsylvania State University.

The current student enrollment is over 85,000 and there are more than 25,000 full-time faculty and staff members. In addition to the University Park campus, there are students at nineteen Commonwealth Campuses, Penn State Great Valley, the College of Medicine at The Milton S. Hershey Medical Center, and the Carlisle location of The Dickinson School of Law. The Pennsylvania College of Technology in Williamsport is an affiliate of Penn State.
In addition to on-campus undergraduate and graduate instruction and research, the University extends its mission to the citizens of the Commonwealth and beyond through a comprehensive outreach program: continuing education courses, workshops, and conferences; distance education via the World Campus, satellite, cable television, and independent learning; economic development programs and services; and cooperative extension educational programming within every county of the Commonwealth.

The University as an Affirmative Action, Equal Opportunity Employer

Penn State is an equal opportunity, affirmative action employer, and is committed to providing employment opportunities to minorities, women, veterans, individuals with disabilities, and other protected groups. Maintaining, supporting, and expanding the University's commitment to those principles is a top priority at Penn State.

Discrimination, Harassment, Sexual Harassment and Related Inappropriate Conduct (AD85)

The University is committed to equal access to programs, facilities, admission and employment for all persons. It is the policy of the University to maintain an environment free of harassment and free of discrimination against any person because of age, race, color, ancestry, national origin, religion, creed, service in the uniformed services (as defined in state and federal law), veteran status, sex, sexual orientation, marital or family status, pregnancy, pregnancy-related conditions, physical or mental disability, gender, perceived gender, gender identity, genetic information or political ideas. Discriminatory conduct and harassment, as well as sexual misconduct and relationship violence, violates the dignity of individuals, impedes the realization of the University's educational mission, and will not be tolerated (AD85).

Direct all inquiries regarding the nondiscrimination policy to Dr. Kenneth Lehrman III, Vice Provost for Affirmative Action, Affirmative Action Office, The Pennsylvania State University, 328 Boucke Building, University Park, PA 16802-5901, Email: kfl2@psu.edu, Tel (814) 863-0471.

Appointment Types

Each University staff employee is appointed to a standing position, a fixed-term I position, a fixed-term II position, or a wage payroll position. For information regarding conditions of employment for standing or fixed term I positions see HR34. For information regarding conditions of employment for employees in fixed-term II or wage payroll see HR103 Employment Conditions for Part-Time, Intermittent/Short-Term & Full-Time Student Employees.

Provisions for Standing and Fixed-Term I Appointments

A. POSITION RESPONSIBILITY

One hundred percent full-time equivalent (FTE) appointments are those which are scheduled for 12-months a year, 40-hours per week. Appointments scheduled to work fewer months per year and/or fewer hours per week may be established when the University’s work needs can be efficiently and effectively met. (See HR88).

Each dean or administrative officer shall determine and assign responsibilities to each employee in the dean’s or administrative officer’s college or department and, within the parameters established by University policies, shall also establish the general limits of the annual work schedule associated with those responsibilities.

The dean or administrative officer is responsible for seeing that each new employee is informed regarding the employee’s job title, job description, grade level, and salary range. An employee is subsequently entitled to a review of the description and the evaluation of his or her job by making a request of the immediate supervisor. (See HR34.)

B. PROBATIONARY PERIOD

When a person begins employment with the University in a standing or fixed-term I appointment, he or she is considered a probationary employee. During the probationary period, such an employee cannot use the staff general grievance procedure, and the employee’s employment may be terminated without recourse to the procedure.

If a probationary employee accepts a different job within the University, the employee will serve a new probationary period. An employee who has completed a fixed-term I appointment will not start a new probationary period on reappointment, if the employee is to be reappointed to that position on a fixed-term I or standing appointment within three consecutive months following termination of the appointment.

The employee’s probationary period starts on the employee’s first day of employment and lasts for 12 consecutive months; provided, however, that any month in which an employee does not work at least half of normally scheduled work time for that month will not be counted toward completion of the probationary period. Employees who have not completed a probationary period are typically not entitled to a payout of vacation time upon separation from University employment.

C. VACATION

Vacation time off is scheduled by mutual agreement between the employee and the college or department; provided, however, the college or department may at its discretion require an employee on a fixed-term I appointment to take vacation time off during the appointment so that all or part of accumulated vacation is expended prior to the conclusion of the appointment.

Only days on which the employee normally would have worked are charged against vacation allowance. For exempt staff, deductions from salary for time off in excess of accumulated vacation may be made only for full-day absences.

Normally, an employee earns appropriate vacation accumulation in any calendar month in which the employee is paid for at least half of normally scheduled work time for that month. Except, any pay received for accumulated vacation at time of layoff of more than 120 days, leave of absence, or termination of employment shall not be credited toward this qualifier.

Except as otherwise provided below, nonexempt staff accumulate vacation according to the following schedule:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Monthly Rate of Accumulation</th>
<th>Maximum Accumulation Allowed</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>During the first 10 years of continuous employment in a standing or fixed-term I position</td>
<td>12 hours</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>From the beginning of the 11th year to and including the 25th continuous year</td>
<td>16 hours</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>From the beginning of the 26th continuous year and thereafter</td>
<td>18 hours</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Except as otherwise provided below, exempt staff accumulate vacation according to the following schedule:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Monthly Rate of Accumulation</th>
<th>Maximum Accumulation Allowed</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>During the first 25 years of continuous employment in a standing or fixed-term I position</td>
<td>16 hours</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>From the beginning of the 26th continuous year and thereafter</td>
<td>18 hours</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
The following are exceptions to the vacation accumulation provisions cited above:

1. See HR88 for calculating monthly accumulation rates, maximum accumulations, and vacation usage for less than 100% FTE appointments.
2. An employee preparing for a major life event such as the birth or adoption of a child, finishing a degree, etc., may need more paid time off than provided above. In such event, the employee may request a temporary exception to the maximum accumulation limit. To do so, the employee submits a written request to the supervisor and the human resources representative outlining the event and identifying the period of time involved. Such request may be granted, when, in the opinion of the supervisor, the University’s work needs can be efficiently and effectively met.
3. An unexpected work-related situation (e.g., another employee quits) may cause an employee to miss or delay using vacation days, resulting in a vacation balance that exceeds the maximum stated above. In such event, the employee may request a temporary exception to the maximum accumulation limit. To do so, the employee submits a written request to the supervisor and human resources representative outlining the work-related event and the vacation balance request. The days accumulated in excess of the maximums stated above must be used within the next 12 months.
4. In the situations described in 2. and 3. of this section, if the employee terminates employment, then the vacation payoff described below will not include any days accumulated in excess of the applicable maximum cited above.

An employee who terminates employment after completing at least one continuous year in a standing or fixed-term I appointment immediately preceding the date of termination, or an employee on a fixed-term I appointment of less than one year who terminates at the end of the appointment, shall receive the cash equivalent of unused accumulation (not to exceed the maximum provided by policy); provided, however, this provision for making payment for unused vacation shall not apply to an employee: (a) who is terminating from a fixed-term I appointment, if the employee will be reappointed within three consecutive months to a fixed-term I or standing appointment or, (b) if the college or department required that the employee needed to take vacation time off during the appointment so that all or part of the accumulated vacation is expended prior to the conclusion of the appointment. See HR50 for special provisions of retirement.

D. SICK LEAVE

An employee on a 100% FTE appointment will accumulate 8 hours of sick leave with pay for each calendar month in which he or she is paid for at least half of normally scheduled work time for that month, except that pay received for accumulated vacation at time of layoff of more than 120 days, leave of absence, or termination of employment shall not be credited toward this qualifier. See HR88 for sick leave accumulation and use for less than 100% FTE appointments.
NOTE: Exempt staff who began exempt employment prior to October 1, 1992, continue on their former sick leave plan.

Accumulated sick days provide an insurance cushion for employees in the case of illness or injury. They can be an important asset in the event of a prolonged illness or injury, insuring salary continuation during this period of absence. Therefore, employees should be very judicious in their use of paid sick days.

Except as otherwise provided below, absence is chargeable as sick leave only when the employee is unable to perform his or her duties because of his or her illness or injury. Time off for an employee's routine appointment with a physician, dentist, hospital, or optometrist is charged to sick leave, provided it is not possible for the employee to schedule the appointment on the employee's own time (see also HRG02). The request for such time off shall be made as far in advance as possible. Such routine appointments usually are of less than a half-day duration; therefore, an employee is expected to return to the job as soon as the appointment is completed. A supervisor may request the employee to submit a written statement from the person with whom he or she had the appointment.

An employee may use up to 40 hours of accumulated sick leave per calendar year to care for a sick family member. Family member as used in this policy shall be defined as those whom the employee considers as family. The care provided may include such activities as bed-side care, accompanying the family member to a doctor's appointment, and emotional support. (See also HRG02 Alternate Work Arrangements and HRG11 Family and Medical Leave.) Absences provided for in this paragraph shall not be considered as part of an employee's attendance record for purposes of job bidding.

In excess of sick leave
If an employee is charging sick leave and the employee's vacation accumulation reaches the maximum, the employee can charge vacation accumulation instead of sick leave, so that vacation earnings are not lost.

If an employee expends all accumulated sick leave, additional absence, at the option of the employee, shall be charged to accumulated vacation. If the employee expends all accumulated vacation, or elects not to charge the absence to accumulated vacation, the employee shall be granted a leave of absence without pay in accordance with HR16, Leave of Absence Without Salary. For exempt staff, a salary deduction shall be made for absence in excess of accumulated sick leave or vacation, only if such absence is for a full day.

An employee who retires on a pension who is eligible for continuation of insurance into retirement shall receive 1/4 the cash value of the employee's unused sick leave; provided, however, such payment shall not exceed an amount equal to (a) 100 hours of pay, or (b) 136 hours of pay if the employee's accumulated sick leave balance is at least 3/4 of all sick leave earned.
E. SICKNESS AND ACCIDENT SUPPLEMENT

An employee who has five or more years of continuous service in a standing or fixed-term position who is absent beyond 60 continuous calendar days for an illness or injury will be covered by the University's Sickness and Accident Supplement; provided, however, for absences not covered by FMLA, if the employee has used more than 48 hours of accumulated sick leave in the full 12 month period immediately preceding the absence without doctor's certification for such absences charged in excess of 48 hours, the employee shall not be eligible for the Sickness and Accident Supplement. The Sickness and Accident Supplement (SAS) Claim Form must be submitted to the University prior to the beginning of the absence.

The employee shall receive 1/3 of normally scheduled hours of pay for each work day missed while covered by the Sickness and Accident Supplement. In addition, the employee, at the employee's option, may charge the equivalent of 1/3 of normally scheduled hours of accumulated sick leave for each work day missed and therefore receive 2/3 pay. If an employee has used all of his or her accumulated sick leave, additional absence, at the option of the employee, may be charged as provided herein against accumulated vacation.

An employee shall not be eligible to continue under the Sickness and Accident Supplement for an absence that continues beyond 180 continuous calendar days from the date of the beginning of absence for the illness or injury.

Any payments received from the Sickness and Accident Supplement shall be reduced by payment from other sources such as Workers' Compensation, Social Security, or other non-individual disability coverage.

F. ABSENCE FOR ON-THE-JOB INJURY

If an employee is absent from work as a result of an injury or illness compensable under the Workers’ Compensation Act, Occupational Disease Act, or similar legislation, the following conditions apply:

1. The employee has the option to request a leave of absence without pay or to charge the absence to his/her accumulated sick leave (or, if sick leave has been expended, accumulated vacation, personal holiday, service days, or holiday compensatory time off). An employee electing to use such paid time off shall be charged one-third (1/3) of a day for each workday of absence and shall continue to receive full salary.

2. If all paid time off is exhausted, the employee shall be granted a leave of absence without pay.

3. Leave of absence without pay shall not exceed twenty-four (24) months.
4. Any workers’ compensation insurance checks the employee may receive while receiving full salary shall be endorsed and returned to the University. The employee shall retain any workers’ compensation insurance checks received while on leave of absence without pay.

5. The employee's contribution for all group healthcare and insurance coverage in which enrolled shall be paid by the University, if the employee is on leave of absence without pay following an on-the-job injury, provided the employee continues to receive Workers’ Compensation insurance payments.

For more information, see the section on Workers’ Compensation Insurance.

G. HOLIDAYS

Each holiday established by the University is intended to give an employee on a 100% FTE appointment the benefit of eight hours of paid time off.

1. The following twelve (12) days are established as holidays:

   - New Year's Day
   - Labor Day
   - Memorial Day
   - Thanksgiving Day
   - Independence Day
   - December 25 and five additional days in December *
   - A Personal Holiday

   When December 25 comes on these days - The six holidays are:

   - Sunday Dec. 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30
   - Monday Dec. 22, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29
   - Tuesday Dec. 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 31
   - Wednesday Dec. 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 30
   - Thursday Dec. 24, 25, 26, 29, 30, 31
   - Friday Dec. 24, 25, 28, 29, 30, 31
   - Saturday Dec. 23, 24, 25, 27, 28, 29

2. The following are exceptions to the holiday provisions cited above:
a. See HR88 for holiday provisions for less than 100% FTE appointments.
b. Some areas substitute service days in lieu of some of the holidays listed above.
c. A newly hired employee commencing employment in a standing or fixed-term I position during December shall receive only the December 25th holiday and the New Year’s Day holiday, but shall not receive paid time off for the additional University holidays in December during that first December holiday period. If such employee is required to work on any of the additional University holidays occurring that December, the employee shall receive his or her regular pay for such day, but shall not be granted holiday compensatory time off for the number of hours worked on the day.

3. One personal holiday is earned each calendar year on January 1. A new employee in the first year of employment earns a personal holiday for that year after completing two months of employment. The personal holiday is scheduled in the same way in which vacation is scheduled. If not used, the personal holiday shall be carried over into the next calendar year but not thereafter.

4. A nonexempt staff employee required to work a regularly scheduled work day on an official University holiday shall receive his or her regular pay for the holiday and shall be granted holiday compensatory time off at the rate of double time for the number of hours worked on the holiday, up to the number of hours normally worked by the employee on that day. At the option of the employee, the employee may receive the cash equivalent of 1/2 of compensatory time off earned on a holiday. Such payment shall be calculated using the employee’s regular rate of pay. The option to receive such payment must be made within one calendar week following the holiday or holiday period. Holiday compensatory time off not converted to the cash equivalent shall be used for absences where vacation accumulation would be used.

Time worked on a holiday in excess of the employee’s normal daily hours shall be paid at two times the employee’s regular rate of pay. Holiday compensatory time off shall not be earned for such additional hours worked.

If a holiday should fall on a day not normally scheduled as a work day for an employee:

a. The employee shall be granted eight hours of holiday compensatory time (see HR88 for positions that are less than 100% FTE). Such equivalent time off shall be granted whether or not the employee works on the holiday and shall be used for absences where vacation accumulation would be used, before such absences are charged against vacation.

b. If the employee is required to work on such day, the employee also shall be paid at the rate of two times the employee’s regular rate of pay for the hours worked, but shall not be granted additional holiday compensatory time off for such hours worked.
5. An exempt staff employee required to work on a regularly scheduled work day on an official University holiday shall receive his or her regular pay for the holiday and shall be granted holiday compensatory time off at the rate of double time for the number of hours worked on the holiday. At the option of the employee, the employee may receive the cash equivalent at the employee's regular rate of pay for 1/2 of the compensatory time off earned on a holiday, not to exceed a normal day's gross pay for the employee. The option to receive such payment must be made within one calendar week following the holiday or holiday period. Holiday compensatory time off not converted to the cash equivalent shall be used for absences where vacation accumulation would be used.

If a holiday should fall on a day not normally scheduled as a work day for an employee:

a. The employee shall be granted eight hours of holiday compensatory time (see HR88 for positions that are less than 100% FTE). Such equivalent time off shall be granted whether or not the employee works on the holiday and shall be used for absences where vacation accumulation would be used, before such absences are charged against vacation accumulation.

b. If the employee is required to work on such day, the employee also shall be granted additional holiday compensatory time off at the rate of double time for the number of hours worked on the holiday. At the option of the employee, the employee may receive the cash equivalent at the employee's regular rate of pay for 1/2 of such additional holiday compensatory time off earned, not to exceed a normal day's gross pay for the employee. The option to receive such payment must be made within one calendar week following the holiday or holiday period. Such holiday compensatory time off not converted to the cash equivalent shall be used for absences where vacation accumulation would be used, before such absences are charged against vacation accumulation.

6. If a holiday occurs during the vacation or sick leave of an employee, it shall not be charged as a day of vacation or sick leave.

7. An employee on no-pay status is not paid for holidays that occur during the absence.

8. If a holiday listed above (other than December 25) occurs on a Sunday, the University shall observe it officially on the following Monday.

9. The final date of pay status for an employee who indicates an intent to resign at a time near the December/New Year's holiday is determined in accordance with HRG14.

H. OTHER PAID TIME OFF

Paid time off, other than sick leave, vacation, or holidays, includes:

1. Death in Family
Absence from work because of death in an employee's family shall be allowed with full pay on the following basis:

a. For an employee's partner, brother or sister (including half-brother or half-sister); or for an employee's or an employee's partner's: parent (including stepparent, guardian, or foster parent), child or stepchild (including the partner of the child or stepchild), grandchild, up to 40 of leave to be used consecutively, provided such amount of leave is required. A guardian as used in this section shall mean a person who raised the employee and served in the place of the parent for a substantial portion of the employee's minority life.

b. For the employee's or employee's partner's grandparent, niece, nephew, aunt or uncle, and partners of aunts and uncles or, the employee's partner's brother, sister, and partners of same, or, the partner of employee's brother or sister, up to 8 hours from the date of death through the date of the funeral inclusive.

An employee who would qualify for death-in-family paid time off for regular work hours missed under the provisions of this section who already is receiving paid time off chargeable either to vacation accumulation, holiday compensatory time, a personal holiday, or sick leave accumulation shall have such time off as applicable charged instead to death-in-family paid time off, up to the limits allowed under the provisions of this section.

Additional time off shall be charged against the employee’s vacation accumulation or as a payroll deduction, at the employee's option.

2. Involuntary Jury Service

If an employee is on jury duty, the University shall pay his or her full salary for time absent from work. If the approved time absent results in the employee missing more than half of his or her regularly scheduled work shift, the employee shall be excused from the remainder of the shift with no loss of salary. (See note below.)

3. Volunteer Fire Fighting

The full pay of an employee shall be paid during the time spent by the employee during his or her regular working hours in fighting fires or in answering other public alarms, provided that the employee is a member of a volunteer fire department that is engaged in the activity or in the event of a forest fire, the employee is engaged in an organized forest fire fighting operation in the area in which the employee's campus or center is located. (See note below.)

4. Ambulance Driving

The full pay of an employee shall be paid during the time spent by the employee during his or her regular working hours in nonscheduled driving of an ambulance for a volunteer ambulance club or organization serving the community where the employee's campus or center is located. If an employee is a volunteer ambulance driver for a volunteer ambulance club or organization that does not primarily serve the community where the employee's campus or center is located, the full pay of the employee shall be paid during the time spent by the employee during his or her regular working hours in driving an ambulance provided:

   a. The driving is limited to unplanned emergencies and

   b. The employee is not called from work to drive. (See note below.)

5. Subpoenaed Witness

   If an employee is subpoenaed as a witness, and is not a party to the legal action, the employee's full salary shall be paid for the time spent by the employee during his or her working hours as a witness. (See note below.)

6. Certified Air-Raid Wardens, Airplane Spotters, Civil Defense Officials, and Civil Air Patrol Members

   An employee who is certified as an air-raid warden, airplane spotter, or civil defense official shall be paid his or her full salary for the time spent by the employee during his or her regular working hours on such duties, provided there is an authorized alert and the Civil Defense authorities have requested the employee to report for duty. A member of a Civil Air Patrol Group involved in an air search and rescue mission shall be paid his or her full salary for the time spent by the employee during his or her regular working hours, provided there is an authorized mission and the Civil Air Patrol authorities have requested the employee to report for duty. (See note below.)

7. Emergency Rescue

   The full pay of an employee shall be paid during the time spent by the employee during the employee's regular work hours when engaged in an organized emergency rescue of someone trapped in a cave, provided the employee is a member of an established spelunking club or organization and the rescue activity is in the area in which the employee's campus or center is located. (See note below.)

NOTE: In paragraphs 2 through 7, above, such time shall include time spent in the activity described, plus travel time, time necessary for normal sleeping, etc., as determined by management.

I. OVERTIME - NONEXEMPT STAFF
Overtime is all authorized time worked by a nonexempt staff employee for the University that is:

1. In excess of forty (40) hours a week. In any week in which a University holiday, including a personal holiday, occurs on an employee’s regularly scheduled workday, or an employee has scheduled time off in advance chargeable to either accumulated vacation or compensatory time, such holiday or time off shall be considered as time worked.

2. Performed on a day that is regularly scheduled as a day off for that employee, unless proper notice of a change in work schedule is given as provided in the Work Schedule section above.

Overtime is permitted to be worked only after advance approval by the dean or administrative officer and shall be permitted only in unusual circumstances. Such approved overtime is paid for at the rate of time and one-half the hourly rate, or at the rate of two times the hourly rate if the overtime qualifies as holiday overtime.

J. SHIFT PREMIUM - NONEXEMPT STAFF

Employees in nonexempt positions shall be paid a shift premium of sixty cents ($.60) per hour for work beginning between the hours of 1:00 p.m. and 9:59 p.m. and sixty-five cents ($.65) per hour for shifts beginning between 10:00 p.m. and 4:59 a.m. for all continuous hours worked on the shift. The shift premium shall be added to the base rate before the calculation of an overtime rate.

K. LEAVE OF ABSENCE WITHOUT SALARY

On recommendation of the dean or administrative officer, an employee may be placed on a leave of absence without salary, provided the leave is in accordance with all University policies and guidelines.

Conditions for the various types of leaves of absence without salary are explained in HR16 Leave of Absence Without Salary (Other Than For Active Military Service or Training), HR19 Leave of Absence For Active Military Service or Training, and HR20 Breastfeeding Support, and HRG7 Absence From Work Resulting from Pregnancy or Childbirth, HRG11 Family and Medical Leave, and HRG13 Definition of Formal Study as Outlined in HR16.

L. FAMILY AND MEDICAL LEAVE ACT (FMLA)

The Federal Family and Medical Leave Act defines an eligible employee as an employee who has worked for the University for at least 12 months and who has worked at least 1,250 hours within the 12-month period immediately preceding to the absence. Please refer to the following for more information regarding FMLA:

- HRG11 Family and Medical Leave

Any questions on the FMLA provisions or related policies should be referred to your Human Resources Representative.

M. LENGTH OF UNIVERSITY EMPLOYMENT

Length of University employment is measured in months of continuous employment in a standing or fixed-term I appointment from the date of last hire and includes leaves of absence and periods of layoff. (See HR34. It ceases when an employee quits, resigns, is dismissed, or fails to report back to work on the date given in a notice of recall under the Short-Term Closedown section of HR97 Layoff Provisions for Staff Employees.

A new employee is not granted credit for length of University employment during the probationary period. However, after the completion of his or her probation, credit will date from the first day of employment in a standing or fixed-term I position.

N. UNAUTHORIZED ABSENCE

If an employee is absent from work and has not notified his or her supervisor, the employee will be considered as having abandoned his or her job at the completion of the third consecutive workday of unauthorized absence, unless the supervisor judges the circumstances to have been emergency in nature, and it can be shown that it was impossible for the employee to have given proper notification to the employee's supervisor.

O. TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT

Employees should give adequate notice prior to the effective date of resignation. Ordinarily, one month is preferred, but a minimum of two weeks is required. Healthcare benefits may be continued by employees or dependents, as appropriate, under certain conditions. See the Staff Benefits section.

P. RE-EMPLOYMENT WITH THE UNIVERSITY

If an employee terminates a Standing or Fixed-Term I appointment with the University and later is rehired to a Standing or Fixed-Term I appointment, the following conditions apply:

1. The employee is a probationary employee.
2. The employee does not receive service credit for his or her period of prior employment for the purpose of increasing the vacation accumulation rate, the length of leave of absence, or other working conditions related to length of service unless provided by University policy.

3. The employee does not receive credit for any unused sick leave from a previous period of employment.

Q. SALARY PAYMENT INFORMATION

Each pay period consists of a calendar month, and payday is the last normal working day of each month, except for certain employees at the College of Medicine at The Milton S. Hershey Medical Center, who are paid biweekly. However, if payday falls on a weekend day or a holiday, salary checks are issued on the last weekday of the month. In December, earlier distribution of salary checks may be made as a convenience to employees. However, checks are negotiable on the date indicated on the check.

Employees hired after November 1, 1993 must, as a condition of employment, have direct deposit. Direct deposit of salary checks is made effective the same date as distributed checks are dated. Salary Deposit Request Forms are available from the Payroll Department and on GURU under the Payroll section, page 5.05. (See PR11 for more specific information).

Mandatory and optional deductions are made automatically from payroll checks and may include items such as, federal, state, local and social security taxes, as well as a variety of other benefit deductions and premiums.

R. PROMOTIONAL OPPORTUNITIES

The University at all times desires to fill all staff jobs with the best-qualified persons available. Candidates expressing interest in a position must meet the listed qualifications. The college of administrative unit will then review qualified candidates’ submitted materials to determine if further consideration, such as an interview, should take place. For complete information, see HR74.

S. PERFORMANCE REVIEWS

The formal performance review process, YOU@PSU, is conducted annually each year and involves both the employee and his/her supervisor. The process includes updating the job responsibilities worksheet (JRW), setting goals and expectations, and reviewing competencies. On-going conversations between employees and supervisors are encouraged throughout the year.

T. EXTRA COMPENSATION - EXEMPT STAFF
An exempt staff employee, by the nature of the position, is considered to be available for work assignments without additional remuneration at times other than the employee's regularly scheduled hours of employment. However, there are circumstances under which it is to the University's advantage to employ such personnel for extra assignments with additional remuneration (see HR90).

Additional Policies for Staff Employees

A. EMPLOYMENT OF RELATIVES

The University seeks to provide equitable employment opportunities for all individuals, including those related to one another by blood or marriage. Such relationships affect the handling of certain personnel actions, including the placement of employees.

Normally, placement shall not be made where one employee is in a position to supervise or to influence the related employee's rate of pay, or promotion of the employee, or where the handling of confidential information could create awkward work situations. (See HR59.)

B. CAMPAIGNING FOR PUBLIC OFFICE

Under existing University policies, staff members may campaign for any public office without modification of the terms and conditions of their University status if the campaign does not interfere (in any way deemed significant by officers of the University) with the performance of assigned University duties. If the campaign does interfere with the performance of assigned University duties, the individual must resign from his or her position with the University, or petition for a leave of absence without salary.

In such campaign activity, the individual's relationship to the University is not to be exploited either directly or by indirection.

A leave of absence from administrative duties is not granted to campaign for public office. (See HR35.)

C. ELECTION OR APPOINTMENT TO PUBLIC OFFICE

If elected or appointed, a member of the staff may accept a public office (e.g., membership on borough councils, local school boards) that does not interfere with the individual's performance of assigned University duties without modification of the terms and conditions of his or her University status.
If elected or appointed to an office that would interfere (in any way deemed significant by officers of the University) with the performance of assigned University duties, the individual must resign from his or her position with the University, or petition for a leave of absence without salary. A leave of absence from administrative duties is not granted to serve in an elective or appointive public office. (See HR35.)

D. CONFLICT OF INTEREST

Staff members of the University shall exercise the utmost good faith in all transactions touching upon their duties to the University and its property. In their dealings with and on behalf of the University, they shall be held to a strict rule of honest and fair dealings between themselves and the University. They shall not use their positions, or knowledge gained therefrom, in such a way that a conflict of interest might arise between the interest of the University and that of the individual. Staff members shall disclose to the administrative head of the college or other unit in which they are employed, or other appropriate administrative officer, any potential conflict of interest of which they are aware before a contract or transaction is consummated. (See HR91.)

Benefits

A. INSURANCE AND RETIREMENT BENEFITS

The University offers $5,000 of employer paid life insurance, and the option to purchase additional coverage through payroll deduction, as well as several healthcare programs in which staff members may participate (medical, dental, and vision). Eligible dependents may be included in the healthcare programs. Accidental death and dismemberment insurance is also available. To provide income in case of disability, a long-term disability plan, including an annuity premium benefit, is also offered to all staff members. All new employees are automatically members of the federal Social Security program. For this purpose, each person must have a Social Security number. In addition, each full time staff member must participate in a retirement plan for which mandatory deductions are a percentage of gross salary. If an individual resigns before becoming eligible for retirement benefits, his or her accumulated contributions are handled by either a refund provision or a vesting provision. Additional information, including details regarding deductions and payments, is available from the Employee Benefits Division.

Retirement savings can be increased through a voluntary deferred compensation plan whereby a staff member may authorize payroll deductions for the purchase of available investment options (see Tax-Deferred Plans).

Healthcare benefits may be continued by employees or dependents, as appropriate, under COBRA in the following circumstances:
1. Termination or layoff - coverage may be continued for up to 18 months
2. Death or divorce - coverage may be continued for up to 36 months
3. Dependent child reached maximum age - coverage may be continued for up to 36 months

Details about this continuing coverage option, including the cost, may be obtained from the Employee Benefits Division, (814) 865-1473.

B. TAX-DEFERRED PLANS

All employees are eligible to select and voluntarily participate in a 403(b) tax-deferred annuity plan and/or a 457(b) deferred compensation plan from TIAA-CREF. Under these programs a staff member may agree to have his or her salary reduced, with the amount of the reduction then applied toward the purchase of available investment options.

The amount of the monthly reduction (or premium) is not included in the individual's gross income for federal income tax purposes. When a staff member begins taking distributions from the retirement plan, the payments are then subject to the federal income tax. A ROTH 403(b) option accepting after-tax contributions is also available.

Additional information is available from the Employee Benefits Division.

C. FLEXIBLE BENEFITS PROGRAM

The University offers a program of tax-saving flexible benefits. There are four options:

1. Contribution Conversion (pre-tax deductions for medical, dental, vision and the first $50,000 of voluntary life insurance)
2. Healthcare Reimbursement Account (not available to employees participating in the PPO Savings Plan)
3. Dependent Care Reimbursement Account
4. Health Savings Account (offered only to those employees participating in the PPO Savings Plan)

The amounts contributed under the flexible benefit options are not subject to federal income and social security taxes.

Additional information is available from the Employee Benefits Division.
D. HEALTH MATTERS—PENN STATE’S EMPLOYEE HEALTH PROMOTION PROGRAM

Health Matters, Penn State’s employee wellness program, provides programs aimed at enhancing the health and well-being of the University workforce at all locations. The emphasis of the program is to increase awareness of health risks and healthy lifestyles, provide lifestyle change programs, and help to make the workplace environment supportive of the health promotion goals of employees.

On-site programs vary by location and include free, one-hour course/presentation offerings, low-cost, multi-session courses, as well as lifestyle change programs. Locations away from University Park can request funding each year by working with their campus “Wellness Ambassador to offer wellness programs at reduced rates. Please call Health Matters at (814) 865-3085 to learn who your campus Wellness Ambassador is.

The Penn State Employee Assistance Program (EAP), Health Advocate, is a confidential, professional assessment and referral service designed to provide assistance to employees, their dependents, and their parents and parents-in-law help in dealing with life’s challenges. These challenges may range from relationship issues, elder care, medical second opinions, finding a physician or specialty hospital, to financial concerns. When an employee needs assistance, he/she should call the Health Advocate at 866-799-2728, or visit the Web site at Health Advocate.

The EAP program will provide up to five sessions with a therapist who will make a referral for further counseling if necessary. In crisis situations, a professional therapist may be reached 24 hours a day by calling the toll free number indicated above.

For financial concerns, the EAP will provide a 30-minute telephonic coaching session per each financial concern.

If you have specific questions about Penn State’s EAP, call Health Matters. More information about Health Matters and its services is available on the Office of Human Resources Home Page or by calling at (814) 865-3085.

E. WORKERS’ COMPENSATION INSURANCE

The University covers its employees with Workers’ Compensation insurance for injuries received while engaged in University work. An employee should report any injury, no matter how minor the injury may appear to be. The employee’s work unit must promptly file an electronic “Employer’s Report of Occupational Injury or Disease,” found at https://sedgwickcms.claimcapture.com/. For more information on Workers' Compensation, see the Workers' Compensation Web site and SY4.
F. EMERGENCY CARE

University Health Services at University Park is primarily a student service but in the event of an emergency on campus it is, of course, available to employees at University Park. In case of a medical emergency, University Ambulance Service may be called by dialing 911. There is a fee for ambulance transport. Employees seeking assistance for work-related injuries should go to the Occupational Medicine Department at Centre Medical Sciences Building, 1850 East Park Avenue, Suite 310 (in front of Mt. Nittany Medical Center) or call (814) 863-8492.

G. UNEMPLOYMENT COMPENSATION

Staff members may be eligible for unemployment compensation benefits when employment terminates, except for reasons determined to be voluntary resignation or dismissal for willful misconduct, provided the individual is able and available for work and has sufficient earnings to qualify. Such coverage may not extend, however, to periods when no services are performed (such as between semesters, terms, or school years), provided reasonable assurance of employment has been given for the next semester, term or school year. The determination of eligibility for unemployment compensation is made by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania Unemployment Compensation Service Center where the claim is filed, not by the University.

H. EDUCATIONAL PRIVILEGES

Educational privileges are available to faculty and staff members and their eligible dependents. This provides the opportunity for advanced education by taking Penn State courses at reduced fees. A staff member may, if his or her immediate supervisor approves, schedule University courses. The same privilege is extended to retired staff members who continue their benefits into retirement. When application is made, eligible employees and retirees receive grant-in-aid for 75 percent of the tuition charge. The grant-in-aid is provided for a maximum of 16 credits in an academic year. This privilege of attending classes is not considered as a right which must be granted to each employee.

Eligible dependents of a faculty or staff member and eligible retired faculty or staff members may, upon application by the staff member, receive tuition grant-in-aid when scheduling resident instruction, continuing education, and distance education credit courses (to include courses offered via Independent Learning). Eligible dependents include spouse/same-sex domestic partner and unmarried children, including adopted children and stepchildren. The grant-in-aid applies only until a dependent child receives the first bachelor's degree from the University or any other college or university.

The grant-in-aid for a spouse is available for any semester or summer session that begins two years or later from the staff member's date of continuous standing or fixed term I employment. It is available immediately for a dependent child as long as the employee is hired on, or before, the first day of class.

Additional information regarding application of these benefits is available in HR36 and HR37 and from the Employee Benefits Division.

I. BREASTFEEDING SUPPORT

If you choose to breastfeed after returning to work, accommodations will be made to provide you a place and time to breastfeed or express milk for up to two years following the birth of your child. You will be allowed a reasonable amount of break time during work hours. If possible, those times should run concurrently with normal break and meal periods. Time allowed in excess of normal break and meal periods will be covered preferably by flexible work arrangements. You will need to work with your supervisor to establish mutually convenient arrangements.

The Breastfeeding Support Program at Penn State provides lactation support services for University faculty, staff, students, and their spouses/domestic partners, including lactation stations for breastfeeding or expressing milk, on the University Park campus and many other Commonwealth Campuses. A current list of lactation stations is available at http://ohr.psu.edu/employee-and-family-resources/breastfeeding-support/lactation-stations/. Additional lactation stations may be established by colleges, campuses, and administrative areas by contacting the Breastfeeding Support Program. If a lactation station is not available and you do not work in a private office, then a private, secure, and sanitary area, other than a restroom, will be made available for you. Arrangements for breastfeeding support should be made with your supervisor, prior to or during your maternity leave, preferably no later than four weeks before returning to work. See also HR20 Breastfeeding Support and the Breastfeeding Accommodation Request Form.

J. LIABILITY INSURANCE

The University is adequately protected by a program of liability insurance for all of its activities and operations at any location. All employees of the University are included as insureds under this liability insurance program while they are acting in good faith within the scope of their duties on behalf of the University.

K. EMPLOYEE SPECIAL ASSISTANCE FUND

The Employee Special Assistance Fund is designed to provide financial support for faculty and staff facing a wide range of personal or family hardships.

The fund can provide financial support for temporary circumstances, such as family tragedies; destruction of home or property by fire or other disaster; short-term disabilities where income is curtailed; uncompensated funeral expenses; catastrophic or unusual medical expenses not already covered; temporary supplements to cover extended-care facilities while an employee is arranging for Medicaid; and temporary financial hardship beyond the control of the individual.

The scope of employee hardships that this fund is designed to help overcome is not limited. However, with limited funds available, the level of support available for certain requests may be modest in relation to overall need.

Expenditures from the fund are made by the Vice President for Human Resources. It is anticipated that individuals requesting assistance from this fund will have sought help from other sources external to the University, if appropriate, before seeking assistance from this fund. If such attempts do not satisfy the need, full time employees can initiate the process by sending a written request to the Vice President for Human Resources, 505 James M. Elliott Building, University Park, PA 16802; or e-mail assistancefund@psu.edu. The request needs to include the reason for the request, the amount requested and sufficient documented support for the request.

Staff Classification and Compensation

A. COMPETENCIES PROGRAM

The Competencies Program is the comprehensive system used by the University for recruitment, development, evaluation, compensation and retention of staff employees.

The Competencies Program supports retention and attraction of top talent by:

- Providing clear descriptions of jobs and creating career ladders within jobs
- Identifying competencies required for successful performance in positions
- Reflecting market rates in salary bands

The Competencies Program supports unit autonomy by:

- Allowing more flexibility in recruiting and announcing jobs
- Streamlining the process for salary offers and position reviews
- Retaining equitability through consistent guidelines and audits of unit actions

The five key competencies of the program are:

- Effective knowledge
- Accountability and self-management
- Teamwork and leadership
- Communication
- Innovation and problem-solving
For more information regarding the Competencies Program, please visit the web page at http://ohr.psu.edu/recruitment-and-compensation/competencies. For a listing of staff job profiles visit http://ohr.psu.edu/recruitment-and-compensation/job-profiles.

B. JOB REVIEWS

The job review process is used to evaluate a job that has experienced change or growth. It is important to note that the job review process does not consider the work performance of an employee; such performance is recognized as a part of the Staff Review and Development Plan process.

If an employee would like to have his or her job reviewed, a request should be submitted to the immediate supervisor. A request for job review may also be initiated by the immediate supervisor. In either case, the request for review must have the approval of the Supervisor, Department/Division Head (Budget Administrator), and Academic/Administrative Unit Head (Budget Executive).

For specific information regarding the job review process, please visit the web page at http://ohr.psu.edu/recruitment-and-compensation/job-reviews.

C. COMPENSATION

It is the University’s goal to pay staff salaries that are equitable within the University as well as competitive with the external market. Based on these goals, salary bands based on market data have been developed as guidelines. Salary bands/ranges are fairly wide and overlap, with each salary band consisting of a minimum, midpoint, and maximum. All staff jobs have been assigned to salary bands that most closely align with the market data from both educational and industry surveys.

Employees may access the salary bands on the Compensation and Classification web page http://ohr.psu.edu/recruitment-and-compensation/documents/SalaryBands.pdf

For more information regarding staff compensation and classification at the University, please visit the Compensation and Classification web page at http://ohr.psu.edu/recruitment-and-compensation.

Failure to Meet Acceptable Standards of Performance
All employees are expected to meet certain standards in the performance of their University duties. When an employee is failing to meet these standards in the judgment of his or her supervisor, action must be initiated to inform the employee of any deficiencies. The steps which are followed are outlined in HR78.

Staff Grievance Procedure

If a staff employee would like to appeal the alleged or perceived violations of his or her rights under the University's published rules and regulations, the employee should consult HR79 Staff Grievance Procedure.

Human Resources Representatives

The Vice President for Human Resources, through the Office of Human Resources, is responsible for developing the University's human resources philosophy, programs, policies, and services. Each dean/chancellor/administrative officer, following consultation with the Vice President for Human Resources, is responsible for appointing an individual to serve as the Human Resources Representative to deliver and manage the University's human resources program within the work unit.

Each employee should know the name of his or her human resources representative and should seek that individual's counsel and assistance when human resources problems occur. http://www.ohr.psu.edu/HRRepList.cfm

University Staff Advisory Council

The University Staff Advisory Council acts in an advisory capacity to Penn State's central administration through the Vice President for Human Resources. The Council explores issues, policies, and practices that impact or are impacted by staff; suggests revisions or new initiatives; and serves as an advocate for staff welfare and development.

A. Membership

1. The University Staff Advisory Council (USAC) shall be composed of a minimum of twenty (20) and a maximum of thirty (30) employees in exempt and nonexempt positions. Appointments shall be made with an effort to include diverse representation of staff from a variety of University units and locations.
2. Each member is appointed by the Vice President for Human Resources to serve a three-year term commencing on July 1.

3. Affiliate members are recruited on an as needed basis for Council endeavors which require expertise outside of USAC membership. The affiliate is not a member and does not vote. Affiliates are chosen as needed by each Committee chair and approved by the Executive Committee. The length of affiliation is determined by the Committee chair for the purpose of specific need.

4. One staff member from each of the following organizations shall serve as liaison. These members are not eligible to hold an elected position or vote within Council. Term length is at the discretion of the respective commission:
   a. Commission for Women
   b. Commission on Racial/Ethnic Diversity
   c. Commission on Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Transgender Equity

B. Committees

1. Election Committee - The Election Committee is chaired by the past-chair and is composed of members at least two of whom will have a minimum of two year’s USAC experience. The Election Committee oversees the election process for the chair-elect and all other elections.

2. Publicity Committee - The Publicity Committee serves to publicize the Council's mission and accomplishments and works to increase its visibility within the Penn State community.

   The chair is a confirmed or appointed member selected each year by the Executive Committee with input from the respective Committee and serves a one-year term commencing on July 1. The Committee is composed of members and affiliates as needed. Every effort should be made to ensure at least one committee member has a minimum of one-year USAC experience.

3. Membership Committee - The Membership Committee annually solicits and reviews membership applications and nominations and then recommends a diverse slate of new appointments to the Vice President for Human Resources.

   The chair is a confirmed or appointed member selected each year by the Executive Committee with input from the respective Committee and serves a one-year term commencing on July 1. The Committee is composed of the chair-elect, members, and affiliates as needed.

4. Awards Committee – Through the Staff Recognition and Appreciation Program, the Council honors the many staff members who regularly see potential in others, go the extra mile in a specific situation, and simply make life better for those around them. Specific award criteria shall be made public prior to the nomination period.

The chair is a confirmed or appointed member selected each year by the Executive Committee with input from the respective Committee and serves a one-year term commencing on July 1. The Committee is composed of members and affiliates as needed. Every effort should be made to ensure at least one committee member has a minimum of one-year USAC experience.

5. Ad Hoc Committee – At the annual Council retreat, the membership will vote on establishing ad hoc committees to research and review specific topics and report findings and recommendations to the Council.

The chair of each committee is a confirmed or appointed member selected at the retreat or soon thereafter by the Executive Committee with input from the respective Ad Hoc Committee. The Committee is composed of members and affiliates as needed. Every effort should be made to ensure at least one committee member has a minimum of one-year USAC experience.

C. USAC Accomplishments and Recommendations

1. Council members contribute to various committee efforts throughout the year and meet annually with the University President. They also attend Human Resources benefits and policy presentations. USAC additionally sponsors the Staff Recognition and Appreciation Program through the Awards Committee, which honors staff members for going above and beyond their normal routines in resolving a variety of challenges.

2. Past Accomplishments and Recommendations:

- The development of current Staff Vacancy Announcement Policy Domestic Partner Benefits
- Inclusion of diversity link on Penn State’s employment web site.
- Recommendation for Automated External Defibrillators (AED) in the workplace.

For more information visit: http://ohr.psu.edu/staff-advisory-council.

Other Services and Regulations

A. CENTER FOR WORKPLACE LEARNING AND PERFORMANCE

The Office of Human Resources, Center for Workplace Learning and Performance leads professional and organizational development at the University. The Center helps the University to improve and enrich its human resources through training and professional development programs and services. In partnership with ITS Training Services and other units across the University the Workplace Learning Gateway was developed to provide a summary of the broad range of training seminars and on-line professional development opportunities available for staff. For more information go to the Workplace Learning Gateway Home Page or by contacting learning@psu.edu or (814) 865-8216.

B. PARKING

Each employee wishing to park in University-controlled parking lots must apply for a parking permit. Permits are valid at the issuing campus or college and in open staff areas at University Park.

Applications for parking permits are made at University Park through the parking chairperson of each department, and through the director of business services at other locations.

Employees with disabilities should consult their parking chairperson for parking and transportation options.

Employees must park their vehicles in the areas to which they are assigned. Abuse of parking privileges will result in a fine and revocation of parking privileges on campus. Employees should familiarize themselves with the University’s parking and traffic regulations.

All parking permits are the property of The Pennsylvania State University. They are to be returned upon termination of employment or upon the request of the University.

For further information regarding parking regulations, see BS03.

A Rideshare program and discounted CATA bus passes are available for full time, full benefit University employees. Contact the Parking Office for more information.

C. UNIVERSITY MAIL SERVICE

1. Use of University Mail Service

General University policy requires that equipment, supplies, and services owned, leased, or operated by the University be used only in the conduct of University programs and activities. The use of University Mail Service is governed by this general University policy (see BS01).

2. University Park Mail Pickup and Delivery

University Mail Service delivers and picks up interdepartmental and outgoing United States mail at all buildings on the University Park Campus, Monday through Friday.
U. S. Post Office in State College delivers incoming U. S. mail once each day, Monday through Friday. Postage for outgoing U.S. mail is on a bill-back basis, which is accomplished by attaching a University Mail Service "Metered Mail" card to outgoing correspondence. The correct mailing address for University employees at University Park consists of four lines:

Name
The Pennsylvania State University
Room Number and Building
University Park, PA 16802-0000 (Zip +4)

D. PURCHASING PROCEDURES

Purchasing Services has the responsibility and authority for all University procurement. Information about purchasing procedures can be found in the Purchasing section of GURU or by contacting Purchasing Services. Additional information and resources can be found at http://www.purchasing.psu.edu/

E. USE OF UNIVERSITY TANGIBLE ASSETS, EQUIPMENT, SUPPLIES, AND SERVICES BY UNIVERSITY STAFF MEMBERS

All tangible assets (including equipment, software, audio-visual material, theatrical costumes, etc.) owned, leased or operated by the University are to be used in the conduct of University programs and activities at University owned or leased locations. University tangible assets and services may not be used for personal gain by employees for purposes outside the scope of their employment. (See FN14.)

F. UNIVERSITY POLICE & PUBLIC SAFETY

Penn State University Police & Public Safety is the University agency responsible for all law enforcement related to the safety and security of students, staff, and visitors, and to the protection of University property and equipment.

All acts or suspected acts of crime, including thefts, should be reported to the University Police department immediately.

Emergencies: 814-863-1111
Business / Records: 814-865-1864

I. VICTIM RESOURCES

When you fall victim to a crime, there are resources within the University and also the community that are available to you free of charge. Individuals who would like to speak to somebody regarding a crime are encouraged to report the incident to University Police (814-863-1111). University Police has a Victim Resource Officer available—to address your needs and help you seek the appropriate resources. Other resources include Office of Human Resources, Employee Assistance Program (EAP), Affirmative Action Office and the Women’s Resource Center. The Victim Resource Officer is able to connect you to any of these agencies. Please contact the University Police Victim Resource Officer via telephone 814-865-1864 or via email at slb274@psu.edu.

II. EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT

Keeping the Penn State community safe is an ongoing priority for Penn State. We have substantially increased our efforts to plan for and emphasize safety and security.

Penn State’s Emergency Management Office has established a well-coordinated network of emergency management professionals at the local, state, and federal levels. We engage in training exercises with police and other agencies throughout the year. The Office of Emergency Management consists of a Director and two Emergency Planners that cover both University Park and the Commonwealth campuses.

Although we believe our Penn State campuses to be as safe as any community, we are working to improve our systems on a continuing basis. The Emergency Management website, www.emergencymanagement.psu.edu, contains information about our emergency management efforts and important links to Penn State resources as well as to state and federal management agencies.

Please take some time to visit the site so you can make a personal safety plan for work, home and family.

III. WEAPONS AND FIREWORKS REGULATIONS

The possession, carrying, or use of any firearm, weapon, ammunition, or explosive by any person is prohibited on all University property except by authorized law officers and other persons specifically authorized by the University. Possession of commercially available aerosol dispensers of nonlethal chemical irritants for the purpose of self-protection is permitted. Any use of such devices must be justifiable in accordance with the laws governing the use of force and should be reported to the University Police. No person shall possess, carry, or use any fireworks on University property, except for those persons authorized by University and local governments to discharge such fireworks as part of a public display. Paintball guns may only be used on campus in connection with authorized University activities and only at approved locations. They may not be loaded with propellant or with gelatin paint balls when transported in a vehicle. Any University student or employee who violates these prohibitions shall be subject to discipline in accordance with regular University procedure, which may include suspension or dismissal from the University. Further, if possession or use is in violation of the law, it will be referred to University Police & Public Safety or other proper law enforcement authorities. (See SY12.)
IV. ALCOHOL AND CONTROLLED SUBSTANCES

The use, possession, and distribution of alcoholic beverages are prohibited upon the property of the University unless specifically authorized. The possession or use of alcoholic beverages is prohibited in all Penn State on-campus undergraduate residence hall buildings, including Nittany Apartments and Eastview Terrace, regardless of the age of the individual. The possession and use of alcoholic beverages, subject to the laws of the Commonwealth, is permitted by persons twenty-one (21) years of age or older in a facility licensed by the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board, and in White Course Apartments. Also, the unlawful manufacture, distribution, dispensation, possession, or use of a controlled substance on University property is prohibited.

G. ETHICS AND COMPLIANCE HOTLINE

In response to federal legislation and the University’s desire to better monitor and protect its financial resources, Penn State utilizes a confidential hotline for employees to report cases of fraud, theft of University assets, or conflicts of interest; and other misconduct or violations of University policy, relating to and including research compliance matters, discrimination, or athletics-compliance issues. The hotline can be accessed either via phone at (800) 560-1637 or the internet at http://www.mycompliancereport.com/brand/psu.

The legislation, known as the Sarbanes/Oxley Act, was created as a result of several well-publicized corporate scandals and is applicable to publicly traded corporations. Although the University is not subject to the act, Penn State has taken a proactive approach maintaining its ethical and financial integrity by implementing many of the act's best practices.

One of these best practices is the implementation of a hotline for employees to report possible misconduct. Such misconduct includes the matters noted above.

An independent third party contracted by the University administers the hotline. The operators answering the complaints made via the telephone are available 24 hours a day, seven days a week, and are trained in making callers feel at ease and asking questions that will enable the University to fully investigate the complaint. After the complaints have been received by the third party, they will be assigned to Penn State’s internal audit department for an investigation. The University will respond to all reports made to the hotline.

One feature of the hotline is that it allows an individual to follow up and determine what action has been taken with respect to their complaint through the use of passwords related to an individual’s specific complaint. Another positive aspect to this is that it allows internal audit to ask questions without having to directly contact the individual if he/she prefers to remain anonymous.

H. DATA SECURITY AND PRIVACY

The protection of information processed and stored by the University is outlined in various policies. Any employee engaging in unauthorized use, storage, disclosure, alteration, or destruction of data in violation of these policies shall be subject to appropriate disciplinary action, including possible dismissal. (See AD11 University Policy on Confidentiality of Student Records, AD20 Computer and Network Security, AD23 Use of Institutional Data, AD35 University Archives and Records Management, AD53 Privacy Statement, AD71 Data Categorization, AD80 Identity and Access Management (IAM), ADG01 Glossary of Computer Data and System Terminology, ADG02 Computer Security, ADG07 Data Categorization Examples, HR56 Answering Personnel Inquiries, and HR60 Access to Personnel Files.)

I. UNIVERSITY ISSUED KEYS

Staff members requiring University-issued keys should contact their immediate supervisor. A deposit may be required before a key is issued. A fee may be charged for replacement keys. When a person terminates employment with the University, all University-issued keys must be returned. See HR102 Separation and Transfer Protocol for additional information.

J. BICYCLE REGULATIONS

Any bicycle brought onto the University Park Campus must be registered. Bicycles can be registered online at http://www.transportation.psu.edu/transportation/alt-transportation/bicycles/registration.cfm or in person at the State College Police Department, Ferguson Township Police Department, The Bicycle Shop, or Eddie’s Bicycle Shop.

Copies of the bicycle regulations are available online and at all bicycle registration locations. Bicycle regulations for a location other than University Park may be obtained from the business office.

Bicycle registrations are valid in any Centre Region municipality. Bicycle registrations are valid for two (2) years and expire on May 31 of the second year.

Bicycles shall be ridden on approved bicycle routes and campus roads only. Riders must walk their bicycle at all other places. Specifically, bicycles shall not be ridden on sidewalks or on any pedestrian path in the limited bicycle zone bounded by Fraser Road, Curtin Road, Shortlidge Road, and Pollock Road.

Bicycles may be ridden on malls and pedestrian paths other than those on central campus, given that the rider exercises due caution and yields to pedestrians. The operator of bicycles on malls and roadways must ride with regard for the safety of pedestrians and property, and shall yield to pedestrians.
Bicycles shall be parked on campus at places clearly designated by the presence of bicycle racks. Specifically, a bicycle must not be parked in automobile parking spaces, on lawn areas, shrubs or flower beds, streets, driveways or in any building. This also includes sidewalks, trees, railings, and light poles, entrance ways to buildings, or places that hinder pedestrian travel.

Any abandoned or non-registered bicycle parked on campus, or any bicycle parked hindering University operations, obstructing steps or a handicap ramp may be removed and impounded by the University. (See SY16)

K. SMOKING IN UNIVERSITY FACILITIES

Smoking of any material is prohibited in all University facilities, at all locations, including University-owned vehicles. It also is prohibited in any outside area adjacent to a facility whose configuration and/or other physical circumstances allow smoke either to enter and affect the internal environment or to unduly affect the environment of those entering or exiting the facility. This policy is not intended to apply to residential living spaces, such as apartments and hotel rooms, unless smoking is expressly prohibited by University rules and regulations.

It is the responsibility of all members of the Penn State community to observe this smoking policy. Enforcement of the policy is the responsibility of the budget executive or designee, in office, administrative, and general work areas. In classrooms, laboratories, and seminar/meeting rooms, the leader in charge of the user group is responsible for enforcement of the smoking policy. (See AD32.)

L. PENN STATE FEDERAL CREDIT UNION

Penn State Federal Credit Union has been proudly serving the Penn State Community since 1959. Penn State Federal is a full service financial institution that offers you everything from savings and checking accounts to auto, personal and home loans. Business services are also offered. You may access your accounts through Telephone, Online and Mobile Banking.

Penn State University employees, students and retirees are eligible for membership, as well as their family and household members.

Direct deposit of salary checks and payroll deduction allows members to have funds deposited or loan payments electronically directed from their University paycheck by filling out the appropriate forms.

To begin taking advantage of all that your Credit Union has to offer, visit http://www.pennstatefederal.com/, 102 HUB-Robeson Center on the University Park Campus, 123 Amberleigh Lane, Bellefonte or 1937 North Atherton Street, State College. You may also call (814) 865-7728, (800) 828-4636 or e-mail tellers@pennstatefederal.com to request a membership packet. A small deposit of $5 to a savings account is needed to open a Penn State Federal account.

M. TRAVEL

Information on travel management services and regulations, University Fleet Operations, cash advances, and related subjects is found in the Travel (TR) section of the Policy Manual in GURU and at the Travel Services Web site at http://www.travel.psu.edu.

N. PENN STATE EMPLOYEE DISCOUNTS

The Penn State Discounts program (http://www.ohr.psu.edu/discounts/) is dedicated to providing information for Penn State students, employees, and alumni regarding a wide assortment of discounts.
Facilities and Events

The University provides a wide variety of cultural and recreational activities, most of which are available to staff members as well as their families. Facilities and activities vary somewhat from campus to campus.

It is the policy of the Pennsylvania State University that all Athletics facilities (spaces typically, but not solely, designated for specific intercollegiate athletic program(s) use) will be accessible only by those University athletes and athletic personnel authorized to access such facilities, and during their normal hours of operation. A valid University identification card is required to gain access.

Recreational facilities (spaces typically, but not solely, designated for recreational activity not affiliated with intercollegiate athletic activity) are useable only by those individuals with a valid University student or faculty/staff/trustee/retiree identification card, programmed (where applicable) to allow proper access to such facilities, plus one accompanied guest. The sponsoring individual will be responsible for their accompanied guest at all times while using the facility. Membership fees or daily guest rates may apply for certain services, or access to specialized facilities. Access to such facilities will only be authorized during the time each facility is specifically designated as being open/available for use.

B. ATHLETIC EVENTS

All tickets for athletic events are available at the Bryce Jordan Center Athletic Ticket Office. Season tickets for football games may be purchased at a reduced rate. Other season tickets are available by sport for indoor athletic events at the regular price.

C. ARTS EVENTS

The Center for the Performing Arts at Penn State presents professional touring programs of music, theatre, and dance from around the world in Eisenhower and Schwab auditoriums. Under the direction of the center, symphony orchestras, chamber ensembles, jazz and world music artists, touring Broadway musicals, classical and contemporary dance companies, family productions, and other performances are brought to the Penn State University Park campus September through April of each academic year. The center also commissions and presents new works by leading artists. Audience development and education programs, including pre-performance discussions, master classes with artists, and school-time matinees, enhance the center’s offerings. Ticket discounts are available for patrons purchasing four or more eligible presentations as a package and for groups buying ten or more tickets to a qualifying event. For information, visit www.cpa.psu.edu or phone 814-863-0255.

Penn State Centre Stage is the professional arm of the School of Theatre, presenting high-quality, entertaining, and artistically stimulating performances of musicals, comedies, and dramas featuring both professional actors and Penn State students. Performances take place in the Playhouse Theatre, Pavilion Theatre, and Citizens Bank.
Theatre. Tickets for Penn State students (with a valid Penn State ID) are available at a discounted rate; all other seats are available at full price to the general public. Group rates are available. For information, visit www.theatre.psu.edu.

The Palmer Museum of Art features eleven galleries for the display of its permanent collection and a schedule of nine changing exhibitions each year. A print study room allows for the examination of its numerous works on paper by appointment. The museum's collection of more than 7,000 objects includes American and European paintings, drawings, photographs, prints, and sculpture; objects from ancient, African, and Near Eastern cultures; contemporary American, European and Japanese studio ceramics; and Asian ceramics, jades, paintings, and prints. Admission to the museum and most of its programs and events, including guided tours, lectures, films, gallery talks, and workshops, is free. The museum is open Tuesday through Saturday, 10:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., and Sunday, noon to 4:00 p.m. For more information, please call 814-865-7672, visit www.palermuseum.psu.edu, or become a fan of the Palmer through Facebook.

Works of art by faculty, students, and visiting artists are displayed in Zoller Gallery in the Visual Arts Building, and in the gallery located in the lobby of the Patterson Building. Opportunities for exhibitions by students, faculty, and visiting artists are also available in the HUB/Robeson Cultural Center, and Kern Building. Slide lectures are often presented in association with selected exhibitions.

The School of Music presents over 300 recitals and concerts each year in Esber Recital Hall and Eisenhower Auditorium. Solo performances by faculty members, students, and guest artists, as well as chamber music programs and concerts by outstanding ensembles such as the Philharmonic Orchestra, Symphonic Wind Ensemble, Centre Dimensions Jazz Ensemble, and Concert Choir, are presented each semester. In addition, Penn State Opera Theatre mounts two productions yearly. Some events are free of charge. Tickets for Esber Recital Hall performances may be purchased at the door; tickets for concerts at Eisenhower Auditorium must be purchased in advance. A complete schedule is found at www.music.psu.edu.

For tickets or information on Center for the Performing Arts, Penn State Centre Stage, and select School of Music presentations, plus other performances staged in Eisenhower and Schwab auditoriums and events at the Bryce Jordan Center, phone the Arts Ticket Center at 814-863-0255 or 1-800-ARTS-TIX. For group sales, phone 814-865-5340. If it's more convenient, visit one of the three Arts Ticket Center locations: Eisenhower Auditorium, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. weekdays; Penn State Tickets Downtown (in the Penn State Downtown Theatre Center at 146 S. Allen Street, State College), 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. weekdays, 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Saturdays; or HUB-Robeson Center Information Desk, 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. weekdays (when Penn State classes are in session fall and spring semesters). Penn State Tickets Downtown also sells tickets to athletic events (except football) taking place on the University Park campus.

D. UNIVERSITY LIBRARIES
The University Libraries, with more than 6.9 million volumes, constitute a major resource for students, faculty, staff, as well as residents of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. The largest research library in Pennsylvania, it is one of four resource libraries that provide service and collections to all other libraries and residents of the Commonwealth. The Libraries include a central collection housed in Pattee Library and Paterno Library, Media and Technology Support Services (MediaTech), and five other libraries at University Park Campus plus twenty-two Penn State locations throughout the state. Subject branch libraries include the Architecture and Landscape Architecture Library, Fletcher L. Byrom Earth and Mineral Sciences Library, Engineering Library, and the Physical and Mathematical Sciences Library plus the Law Library.

Pattee Library and Paterno Library collections are organized into subject-specific libraries, making it easier for patrons to access materials they need. Collections in Paterno Library include: The Eberly Family Special Collections Library, the Social Sciences Library, the William and Joan Schreyer Business Library, the Life Sciences Library, and the Education and Behavioral Sciences Library. Collections in Pattee Library include: the Maps Library, News and Microforms Library, Course Reserves Services, and the George and Sherry Middlemas Arts and Humanities Library, which includes the Music and Media Center.

In addition, the Tombros and McWhirter Knowledge Commons in Pattee Library is a technology-rich learning environment with flexible space, hardware and software, and expertise to assist researchers and students. See more at http://www.libraries.psu.edu/psul/kc.html. Within the Special Collections Library, the Penn State University Archives has an extensive collection of materials by and about the University and the local community. Other special collections include archives for the United Steelworkers and the United Mine Workers of America, the John O'Hara Papers, and the nation's largest collections of Utopian and Australian literature.

The Libraries' collections are available through the Web at http://www.libraries.psu.edu/. It provides access to The CAT, the Libraries' online catalog; online resources; online catalogs of other schools and locations (CIC member libraries, E-Z Borrow, and WorldCat (OCLC)); and reference shelf resources. LionSearch also on the Libraries' homepage offers a single search box for library resources, including books, articles, newspapers, databases and more.

Patrons can access all of these sources with a Web connection and a Penn State access account. Penn State uses the Wireless 2.0 Service, which no longer requires VPN service for on-campus connections. See http://wireless.psu.edu/using.html - wireless20. Information for Visitor Wireless is available at http://wireless.psu.edu/visitorwireless.html

Both wired and wireless computer access is available off campus. Users off campus with cable modem or DSL connections and wireless users need to install the VPN client on their personal computer to access audio files on electronic reserve. When connected to the Internet through the VPN, your computer is identified with a Penn State IP and all other servers recognize your computer as an authorized Penn State computer. VPN stands for Virtual Private Network and is explained at http://aset.its.psu.edu/vpn/
Trained personnel at the service desks are available to help patrons utilize the Libraries' resources. In addition, the Libraries offer instruction to library users with beginning and advanced seminars scheduled throughout the semester. For seminar information visit http://www.libraries.psu.edu/psul/lls/classes.html.

All full-time staff members can use their ID cards to check out books for a loan period of one semester. For more information on the lending policy, see the University Libraries Lending Code available at public service areas in the Libraries and on the Libraries' Website.

Services offered to library users include a resource-sharing network through Interlibrary Loan to obtain information not in Penn State's collections, printing, and public photocopiers throughout the Libraries. In addition, the Libraries provide a variety of resources and services for people with disabilities. Please contact the coordinator of Library Services for Persons with Disabilities in advance of your visit to discuss your needs, at (814) 865-0284 or e-mail: shh2@psu.edu

Media and Technology Support Services (MediaTech), a division of the University Libraries, has more than 5,000 pieces of technology and audio-visual equipment to support academic credit instruction available to faculty, staff, and students.

Services include:

- Consultation for purchase of technology or audiovisual equipment:
  - (814) 863-0665
- Equipment scheduling:
  - 814-865-5400, Wagner Annex, e-mail: UL-mtsseq@lists.psu.edu
- Program scheduling:
  - University Park, 814-865-5400 or e-mail: UL-mtsseq@lists.psu.edu
- Repair and Installation Services:
  - (814) 863-4389
- Video/Photo Production Studios: Students and faculty are able to reserve time and space in the studios to produce, edit, and export their video/audio projects. Green screen production is also available for use, with on-site staff available to answer questions and conduct demonstrations. Call 814-865-5400.

Another important service of MediaTech is the MediaTech Info Line, at 814-863-1234 (touch-tone phones only), which includes current weather forecasts from the Campus Weather Service, open house schedules for the Department of Astronomy, and construction barriers on or around the University Park campus.
Mediasite Live at http://www.libraries.psu.edu/mtss/mediasitelive/mediasitelive.html is used for recording, distributing, archiving, and viewing of "rich media" presentations that capture and integrate a wide range of visual content—smart boards, document cameras, digital photography, and graphic tablets—at any point in the presentation.

For more information about Penn State Libraries' locations and collections, visit http://www.libraries.psu.edu/.

E. THE BRYCE JORDAN CENTER

The Bryce Jordan Center, located on the campus of the Pennsylvania State University, is centrally located within the state of Pennsylvania and the largest entertainment facility between Pittsburgh and Philadelphia. The 16,000-seat venue hosts circuses, sports exhibitions, family shows, commencements, lectures, and Big Ten Basketball, as well as some of the top-name performers in the entertainment industry. Since opening in January 1996, the Bryce Jordan Center has made a commitment to provide the best variety of exceptional entertainment.

For updated information on the Bryce Jordan Center, visit www.bjc.psu.edu.

For tickets and events information, contact the Bryce Jordan Center Ticket Office at (814) 865-5555 or www.facebook.com/jordancenter.

F. THE OFFICE OF THE VICE PROVOST FOR INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

The Office of the Vice Provost for Information Technology serves a dual role, providing guidance for the nearly sixty independent IT units across Penn State (located within Penn State’s campuses, colleges, and administrative divisions), and directly coordinating the University’s centrally supported IT unit, Information Technology Services (ITS). The Office of the Vice Provost for Information Technology is situated under both the Office of the Executive Vice President and Provost and the Office of the Senior Vice President for Finance and Business.

The vice provost’s office guides the Penn State IT community (and its approximately 1,500 IT employees) to effectively support the University’s teaching, research, and service mission and business operations through shared IT services and a common focus. Buoyed by eight principles of IT service design and delivery (planning, collaboration, accessibility, compliance, innovation, impact, people, and stewardship), the vice provost’s office sponsors and facilitates University-wide IT collaborations and efforts, such as the IT Leadership Council (ITLC), IT Assessment, IT planning, and numerous shared-service and common-good initiatives.

As budget executive for ITS, the University’s largest single IT operation (approximately 500 of the 1,500 IT employees), the vice provost’s office and the ITS senior leadership team coordinate the planning and operations of many of Penn State’s largest and most widely utilized IT systems and services. ITS provides and supports systems and services such as the University’s core wired and wireless networks; the University’s course management platform; security and protection of the University’s computers and networks; central student and business information and data systems; primary data centers for physical and virtual server hosting; high-performance research computing clusters; online repositories for preserving and sharing scholarly works; and instructional technologies in hundreds of classrooms and computer labs.
